*onthefflyfilms

IDEO

Podshow

Actual Films

Shadow Distribution

Google

HP

Maxtor

Lucky Jeans

Orbit Baby

Select Work:

Orbit Baby

Created five online high definition videos for their modular baby stroller systems. The job entailed a complete video workflow, during which I produced each element of the videos from directing to creating an original score.

Sony

Composed original music for a three-part internet campaign showcasing noise-canceling headphones. I created three distinct urban sounds to accompany each device.

Cover Girl

Director of Photography for a four-camera high definition shoot. I shot a total of eight episodes of an original celebrity-gossip syndication, and video vignettes of makeup application techniques. The tips were featured on the CoverGirl homepage.

Actual Films

Created animations for the award-winning documentary, "The Rape of Europa."

Google

Animated elements for a promotional video.

Hewlett Packard

Worked on an animation team of four on a video showcasing the industrial design of the company, IDEO, for potential HP consumer products.

Director, DP, Editor

Podshow

San Francisco, CA

August 2007-April 2008

Worked on original programming for the U.S. branch of Podshow. I was in charge of three internet syndications. In addition, I provided original musical content for advertisements.

Effects Supervisor

My Tale of Two Cities (feature film)

Pittsburgh, PA

June 2005-July 2005

Created the visual style for the effects of the movie. I was in charge of animation assistants, overseeing their efforts and ensuring quality control.
